

Romantic Summer LÜBECK - Cultural Capital of the North

The Hanseatic town of Lübeck has been elected "UNESCO World Heritage Site" and offers a dazzling array of Gothic brick churches and merchant houses from the medieval times. Stroll through the old town for sightseeing or shopping or simply enjoy the splendid view from our waterside hotel. The world famous "Holstentor" (Holsten Gate) is today a museum showing the history of town, shipping and archaeological finds.

Spend this summer holidaying in the charming town of Lübeck. The Radisson Blu Senator Hotel is offering a special two night stay package which includes a special picnic basket filled with local delicacies and a bottle of red wine. Grab your loved one and find a perfect spot along the river Trave which snakes through the city centre or along the unspoilt beaches around the Baltic Sea.
